

Book management system

1.Introduction

In this project users can create an account and then login using account credentials. On the home screen, the user can view book records in which he can see the book name, author Genre and book year. Can enter new record of book can update the records or can delete the records. In last user can logout the account.

2.key design decisions

Users must Sign Up.

User login using credentials.

Only authorised users can perform actions.

Applied Authentication for security purposes.

Store book records in the database.

Allied validation for data validity.